

Seattle University School of Law

Seattle University School of Law Digital Commons

Prolific Reporter

10-6-1980

Prolific Reporter October 6, 1980

Seattle University School of Law Student Bar Association

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.law.seattleu.edu/prolific_reporter

Recommended Citation

Student Bar Association, Seattle University School of Law, "Prolific Reporter October 6, 1980" (1980).
Prolific Reporter. 20.

https://digitalcommons.law.seattleu.edu/prolific_reporter/20

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by Seattle University School of Law Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Prolific Reporter by an authorized administrator of Seattle University School of Law Digital Commons. For more information, please contact coteconor@seattleu.edu.

STUDENT FORUM MEETING

The first student forum meeting of the year will be Tuesday, October 7 at noon in Rm 504 and Wednesday, October 8 at 5:15 p.m. in Rm 504. Two meetings are scheduled to accommodate all students, day and evening. The meetings give students an opportunity to present their ideas, questions and comments to their S.B.A. representatives. Plan to attend the meeting most convenient for you.

CLIENT COUNSELING

Client Counseling will be holding introductory meetings for all interested students tomorrow, Tuesday, October 7 at noon in Rm 503 and at 8:00 p.m. in Rm 309. For more information, contact Eric Bosley. Client Counseling hours are from 12 till 2 daily and 5:15 to 6 p.m. on Monday in Rm. 309.

ACADEMIC STANDARDS

The Academic Standards Committee will meet Tuesday, October 7 at the conclusion of the Student Forum meeting in Rm 504. Agenda includes consideration of policy concerning recording of failing grades in required courses, booster program and a status report on Conduct Review Board. First year students interested in joining this committee should plan to attend or contact Gay Gallhorn. Members are; 3rd year Barbara Miener, Carmel Mackin; 2nd year Suzanne Elliot, Ken Lagoeni, Jim Richmond. New members and student attendance is welcome.

NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD

The N.G.L. is an organization involved in human rights issues and the law. The aim is to bring together all those who regard adjustments to new conditions as more important than the veneration of precedent; who recognize the importance of safeguarding and extending the rights of workers, women, farmers and minority groups upon whom the welfare of the nation depends; who seek actively to eliminate racism; who work to maintain and protect our civil rights and liberties in the face of persistent attacks upon them; and who look upon the law as an instrument for the protection of the people, rather than for their repression. Come join us -- next meeting: Tuesday October 7 at 4:00 p.m. Rm 504. If interested but unable to attend, contact Suzanne Kendall.

SPEAKERS COMMITTEE

Anyone interested in serving on the Speakers Committee come to a meeting Tuesday, October 7 at 2 p.m. in Rm 505. The committee will be organizing a regular forum and recruiting outside speakers on all points of view. If interested but unable to attend, contact Dave Fleming.

INTERVIEW TECHNIQUES

Double Feature -- Learn all about interviewing while you lunch (Bring your own). In-Ter-View and Brief Encounter will be shown, Wednesday, Oct. 8 from 12 till 1 in Rm 504.

CENSORSHIP

Pres. Phibbs in a meeting with S.B.A. representatives stated that the University has decided to follow Dean Cohen's decision to impound the funds allocated for the student newspaper, "Amicus". The University's position is that so long as students insist upon sending the paper to alumni and the legal community, the funds will be withheld. The money will be released if it is agreed to make it an "in-house" publication only. We can all appreciate the administration's concern for the preservation of 1st Amend. rights.

PARKING

For those of you who have expressed concern over the reserved parking spaces on the sky-bridge level, here's the low down. The Court of Appeals was given the spaces in return for an agreement to pay $32.50 per month per space for 20 years. The reserved space can be used by students after 6:00 p.m. or on weekends.

SECURITY PERSONNEL

The Security Department has requested additional personnel to monitor the Broadway Entrance during library hours. This will allow greater access to the Law Center from Broadway. Keep your fingers crossed that it gets approved.

MISCELLANEOUS

Pres. Phibbs is giving away 6 tickets for the Oct. 12 Seattle Symphony Wagner program. Limit 2 per student. Call ext 3201. New student rep for the Building Committee is Jim Blackwell, 1st year. October bus passes available until Oct. 10 contact Doris Sage. Bike racks should be installed next week.